

Did you know?

- Did you know that by clicking on "Heritages" at <http://www.famillesdostie.org/english-summary-of-the-website/> you find interesting informations on the medallion? Also, by becoming a member, you can make savings on the purchase of books or the medallion. See "Boutique Souvenir"
- ... that the signature of Pierre Dostie, found at the bottom of the deposit of the award of the medallion between the sides of the coin, is the first of Pierre Dostie (de Bellot said Dostie) and is from a legal document found within the Quebec national archives?
- ... that by joining the group Association of Families Dostie with Facebook you'll be among the first to be informed of the news site and you can share, communicate with your distant cousins, cousins, aunts and uncles?
- ... that all Dostie have the same origin, regardless of whether the name has been written D'Ostie, D'Hostie or Dosty? In the United States of America during nineteen century, some Dostie's families have changed their name to Dusty or Dustin.
- ... that our common ancestor came from the Agen region in France?
- ... that Anthony Paul Dostie, a dentist from New Orleans is recognized as a hero and American patriot?
- ... that Anthony Paul Dostie has been a staunch defender of blacks in New Orleans and was assassinated for this reason?
- ... that Pierre de Bellot said Dostie, the son of Marc, had to leave France due to an unfortunate event?
- ... that the paternal grandmother of Judge Antonio Lamer Supreme Court of Canada was named Elise Dostie and therefore a descendant of Pierre de Bellot said Dostie?
- ... that we have the surname Dostie thanks to Pierre de Bellot? Surname he took upon arrival in America.
- ... that we do not yet know the true origin of the surname Dostie?
- ... that Marie-Rose Ratté, wife of Pierre de Bellot said Dostie, is the great-great granddaughter of Abraham Martin, pilot and companion Champlain? That the Plains of Abraham in Quebec City are named in his honor?
- ... that Toinette Casse, mother of Pierre de Bellot said Dostie, was the maid of Marc Bellot, father of Pierre?
- ... that the surname of the father and grandfather of Pierre Bellot said Dostie was also «de Bellot de Monbrun»? The father, Marc, was also known as «de Bellot de Monplaisir»?
- ... that Dosties pass from one generation to another one of the oldest coins of the Americas, legacy of Pierre de Bellot said Dostie?
- ... that a souvenir medallion tells the adventure of the first Dostie through symbols and at reverse, you'll find a reproduction of one side of the coin legacy bequeathed and enough of space to burn the genealogy of your lineage?
- ... that the surname of the father and grandfather of Pierre de Bellot said Dostie was also «de Bellot de Monbrun»? His father, Marc, was also known as «de Bellot de Monplaisir»?
- ... that Dostie are among the founding families in Quebec because our ancestor came to Quebec before the English conquest of 1759?
- ... that Marie-Rose Ratté, wife of Pierre de Bellot said Dostie, is the great-great granddaughter of Abraham Martin, pilot and companion of Samuel de Champlain? That the Plains of Abraham in Quebec City are named in his honor?
- ... that the paternal grandmother of Judge Antonio Lamer Supreme Court of Canada is named Elise Dostie and therefore a descendant of Pierre de Bellot said Dostie?

- ... that we have the surname Dostie through Pierre de Bellot? Surname he took upon his arrival in America?
- ... that we do not yet know the origin of the surname Dostie?
- ... that Anthony Paul Dostie, a dentist from New Orleans is recognized as a hero and American patriot?
- ... that Anthony Paul Dostie has been a staunch defender of blacks in New Orleans and was assassinated for this reason?
- ... that Pierre de Bellot said Dostie, the son of Mark, had to leave France due to an unfortunate event?
- ... that a book tells the story of the first Dostie, of Monflanquin in France via the island of Orleans Quebec and St. Joseph de Beauce?
- ... that history is told and shared and we owe to Pauline Dostie our own history, author of several books about our ancestors?
- ... that all Dostie born in 2009 are at least the tenth generation? that Marie-Rose Ratté and Pierre de Bellot said Dostie were married in the church of Saint-Pierre de l'Ile d'Orleans?
- ... that three (Michel, Charles, Antoine) of the four son of Pierre de Bellot said Dostie and Marie-Rose Ratté were qualified masters bakers in Quebec? Just as André, the only surviving son of Pierre and Marie-Anne Pepin said Lachance. Only Pierre, the eldest son, did not follow its course baker.
- ... that Pierre had two daughters: Sarah and Euphrosine?

