

An Island. A rose. And a man.

Rose-Marie Ratté and Pierre de Bellot surnamed
Dostie
18 November 1754

A family was born
Promise of a New Lineage
The mixture of genes were substained.

Two hearts were joined
Before Bishop Louis-Philippe Mariauchau of Esgly
In the small church of Saint-Pierre
Île d'Orléans

She was born Orléanaise. Fifteen Years old
He, immigrated to route enigmatic.
Twenty-four years
She, Marie-Rose Ratté
Young and frail
As a Water Pearl
In the Light Reflective Island
He, Pierre de Bellot said Dostie
"Biaus Sir '
"Looking deep and proud
Personable man
Enjoyable to watch
Reliable friend
According to the meaning of his surname "